THE WEBINAR GROWTH SPECIALIST

DATASETS VIP

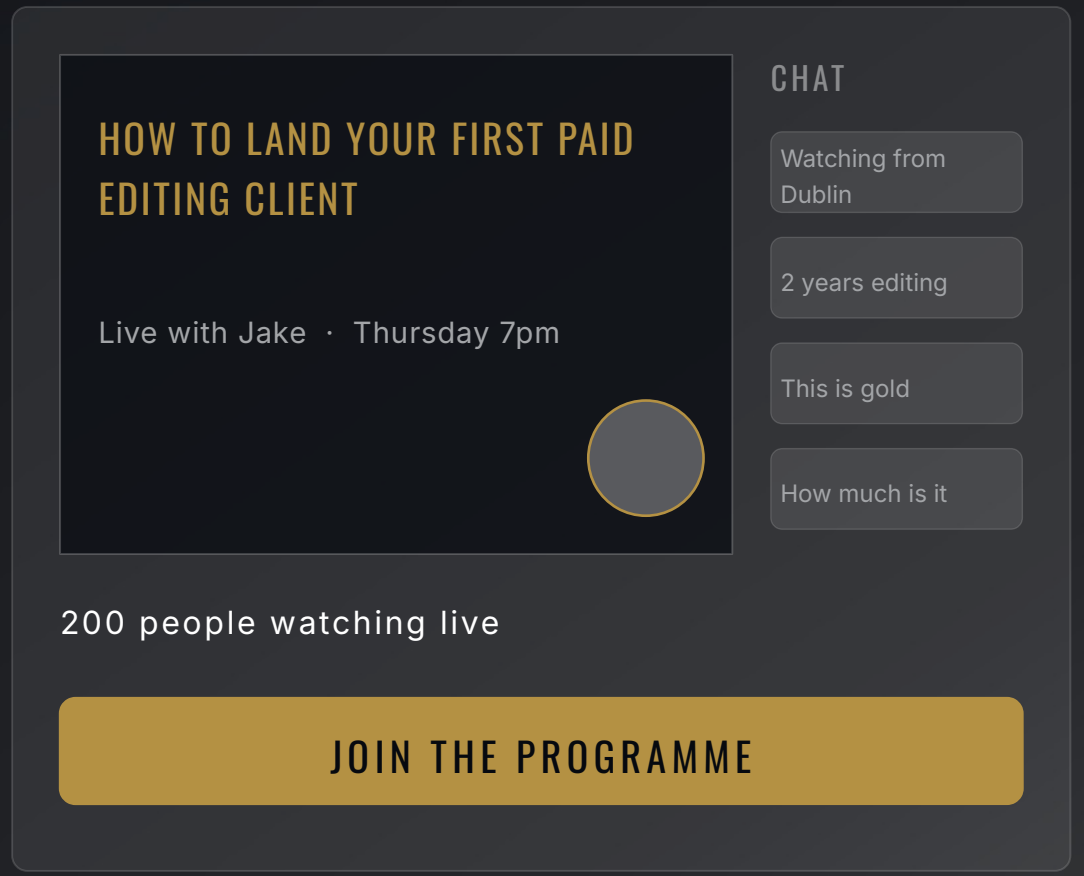

PART ONE

THE BASICS

01 | What A Webinar Is:

A free online class, live at a set time. Someone teaches something useful for about an hour, then offers a way to go further with them.

- Free to join, so lots of people sign up.
- Live at a set time, so people turn up together.
- Ends with an offer, which is where the money comes from.

02 | Why Creators Use Webinars:

The problem: thousands of followers like the posts, and hardly any buy from the link in bio.

AN HOUR BUILDS TRUST

A post gets seconds. A webinar gets an hour of them watching the creator teach.

ONE TO MANY

Teach once and two hundred people are in the room at the same time.

THEY CHOSE TO COME

They signed up and gave up an evening. The warmest buyers a creator will get.

49 to 55 min average webinar engagement in recent ON24 benchmark data

03 | What A Webinar Growth Specialist Is:

You run the whole webinar for a creator, from people signing up to the sales coming in, and you get paid from the results.

THE CREATOR DOES

- Teaches for an hour
- Makes the offer at the end

YOU DO EVERYTHING ELSE

- The sign up page
- Reminder emails and texts
- Script and slides
- The tech on the night
- Follow up and replay
- Tracking the numbers

04 | The Creators You Work With:

WHAT TO LOOK FOR

- They teach a skill people want to learn.
- An audience of 10,000 plus followers.
- A paid offer, ideally €300 plus.
- They're busy and hate the tech.
- Comments asking how do I learn this.

SKILLS THAT FIT

- Video editing
- Photography
- Fitness training
- Music production
- Graphic design
- Copywriting
- Cooking
- Languages

OUR EXAMPLE: JAKE

40,000 followers, teaches video editing, sells an 8 week programme for €1,000.

05 | How You Get Paid:

ILLUSTRATIVE

PART TWO

THE WEBINAR MACHINE

06 | The Whole System On One Page:

When a webinar doesn't make money, one of these three numbers is broken. Your job is finding which one and fixing it.

07 | Getting People To Sign Up:

POSTS AND REELS

Two or three in the week before, each teaching a small tip.

STORIES

Every day for a week, with a link sticker and a countdown.

EMAIL LIST

Three emails in the week before. Their best source.

LINK IN BIO

Points at the sign up page all week.

COLLABS

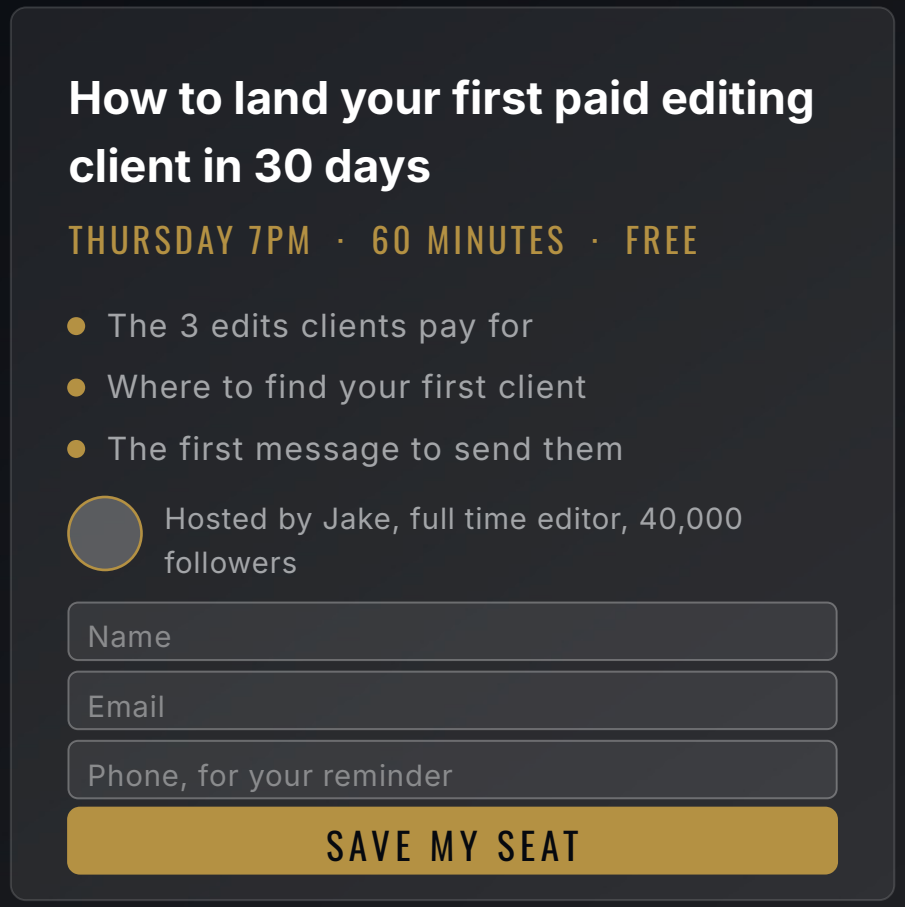

Another creator shares it, or you run a joint webinar.

PAID ADS, LATER

Only once a webinar makes money. Test small first.

Jake's first webinar: 500 sign ups from posts, stories, email and his bio link, and it cost him nothing.

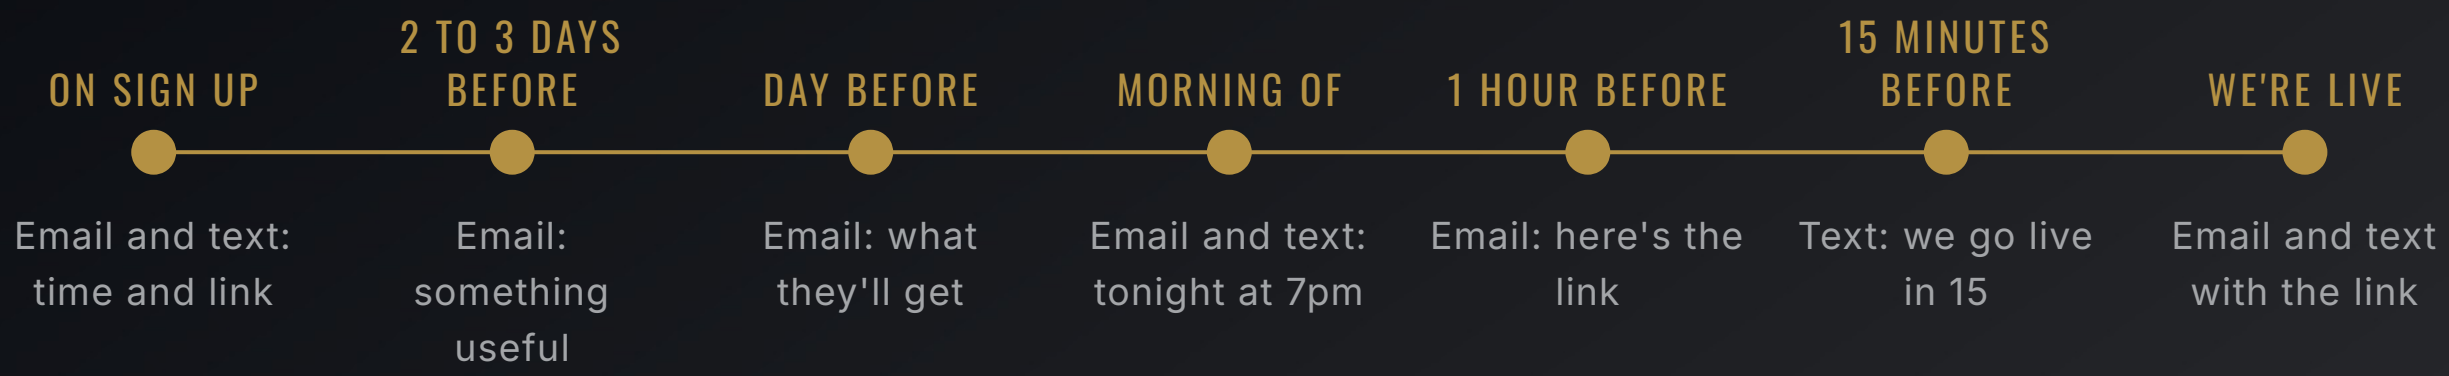

08 | The Sign Up Page:

- Headline: what they'll get, in their words.
- Date, time and length right at the top.
- Three promises, each one specific.
- Creator photo and one line of proof.
- Short form: name, email, phone.
- One button that says what happens.
- Works on a phone, where nearly all social traffic is.

Typical sign up rate: roughly 20 to 40% of visitors (GetResponse; ClickMeeting).

09 | Getting People To Turn Up:

30 to 50%

of sign ups turn up live (Goldcast, Univid, Livestorm data)

15 to 33%

sign up on the day itself, so the day of reminders matter (GoTo, ON24, Livestorm)

10 | Reminder Messages You Can Copy:

ON SIGN UP — TEXT

You're in for How To Land Your First Editing Client, Thursday at 7pm. Your link: [link]. Save this number so you get your reminder.

PART THREE

THE HOUR THAT SELLS

11 | The Hour, Section By Section:

HOOK	STORY	TEACHING	BRIDGE	OFFER	CLOSE	Q AND A
0 to 5	5 to 10	10 to 35	35 to 40	40 to 50	50 to 55	55 to 60

Minutes into a 60 minute webinar

ABOUT AN HOUR

Typical length on ON24's platform, with average engagement around 49 to 55 minutes.

THE RULE

If you can't fill an hour with good stuff, do 45 minutes. Padding loses people right before the offer.

12 | The First Five Minutes:

MIN 1 Say what they'll get.
Start on time, start strong.

MIN 2 Give a reason to stay.
A free bonus for everyone there at the end.

MIN 3 Give a quick win.
One tip they can use straight away.

MIN 4 Get them typing.
People who type early stay longer.

MIN 5 Tell them the plan.
Mention you'll show how to work together at the end.

JAKE'S OPENING LINE

"By 8 o'clock tonight you'll know the three edits clients actually pay for, where to find your first client this week, and the exact message to send them."

13 | The Creator's Story:

WHERE HE WAS

Editing for his mates for free, making nothing.

WHAT WENT WRONG

Months learning software, still no clients.

WHAT CHANGED

Learned to find clients and talk to them. Three clients in a month.

WHERE HE IS NOW

Full time editor, with screenshots of students landing clients.

About five minutes. The people watching should see themselves in it. Use only what's true for your creator.

14 | Teaching Without Giving It All Away:

ON THE WEBINAR

Teach the what and the why.

IN THE OFFER

Sell the how, step by step, with help.

THREE POINTS, EACH ONE KNOCKS DOWN A WORRY

1	The three edits clients actually pay for	knocks down	“I'm not good enough yet.”
2	Where clients are hiding in plain sight	knocks down	“There's no clients for beginners.”
3	The first message to send them	knocks down	“I hate selling.”

15 | The Bridge To The Offer:

"You now know what clients pay for and where to find them. The quickest way to land your first one is to do it with me, step by step."

1 RECAP

Run back through the three points so they feel how much they've learned.

2 SHOW THE GAP

Knowing what to do and doing it are two different things.

3 ASK PERMISSION

Ask them to pop a yes in the chat if they want help. Wait for the yeses.

16 | Presenting The Offer:

ILLUSTRATIVE

WHAT'S IN EDIT PRO	WHAT IT DOES FOR THEM	VALUE
8 week video course	Learn the skills in order	€600
Weekly live calls with Jake	Get unstuck fast	€800
Templates and presets	Look pro from day one	€200
Client message scripts	Know exactly what to say	€150
Private community	Never stuck on your own	€250
Total value		€2,000
Tonight	Plus a portfolio review	€1,000

THE RULES

- One line per part, with an honest value.
- Say the price once, clearly.
- A real bonus for joining tonight.
- Link on screen, in the chat, and said out loud.

17 | Closing On The Night:

A REAL DEADLINE

Say when it ends and stick to it. Fake deadlines get found out.

A BONUS FOR TONIGHT

Something real, like Jake's portfolio review.

READ OUT NEW JOINERS

With permission, and only when it's real.

LINK STAYS ON SCREEN

Through every single question.

REPEAT THE OFFER

Two or three times. People join late and decide late.

ANSWER THE WORRY

A question about hours is really a worry about time.

18 | The Worries That Stop People Buying:

“I can't afford it.”

One editing client at €500 a month pays it back in two months.

“I don't have time.”

Twenty minute lessons, and every call is recorded.

“I'm a complete beginner.”

Type your situation in the chat and Jake answers it live.

“I'll do it later.”

Later usually means never, and the bonus ends Sunday.

19 | After The Webinar: Follow Up And Replay:

DAY 0	DAY 1	DAY 2	DAY 3	DAY 5	DAY 6	DAY 7
0	1	2	3	5	6	7
Replay and offer recap	Top questions answered	A student's result	What waiting costs	Replay comes down tomorrow	Last day, email and text	Closed, next date

THE REPLAY

Send it to everyone. Same deadline as the live offer.
Take it down when you said you would.

42 to 43%

of webinar views come from replays
(Contrast; ON24, 2025)

PART FOUR

GETTING GREAT RESULTS

20 | The Five Numbers You Track:

NUMBER	HOW TO WORK IT OUT	ROUGH RANGE	SOURCE
Sign up rate	Sign ups ÷ page visitors	20 to 40%	GetResponse; ClickMeeting
Show rate	People live ÷ sign ups	30 to 50%	Goldcast; Univid; Livestorm
Buy rate	Buyers ÷ people live	5 to 15%	ClickMeeting; EasyWebinar; Focus Digital
Money per person live	Sales ÷ people live	Your number to beat	Your creator's data
Cost per sign up	Ad spend ÷ sign ups	Only once you run ads	GrowthSpree; WordStream

Ranges come from published webinar benchmarks and tell you where to look. Your creator's own numbers, webinar after webinar, are what you manage.

21 | Find The Broken Step:

IF THIS IS LOW	LOOK AT	FIRST FIX
Sign ups	Promotion and the page	Post more, stories daily, rewrite the headline
Show rate	Reminders and timing	Add texts, run it in the evening
Buy rate	The offer and the pitch	Fix the bridge, the value stack, the deadline
Sales after	The follow up	Check the emails go out and the replay is up

One fix at a time, then run it again. That way you know what worked.

22 | Jake's First Webinar:

ILLUSTRATIVE

500 sign ups from his own audience

100
turn up live, a 20% show rate

BROKEN STEP

buy, a 6% buy rate

€6,000
in sales at €1,000 each

Why: a 6% buy rate is fine, but 20% turning up is well below the usual 30 to 50%. There was one reminder email, and it ran at 2pm on a Tuesday while his followers were at work or college.

23 | Fixing One Step:

ILLUSTRATIVE

	BEFORE	AFTER
Sign ups	500	500
Show rate	20%	40%
People live	100	200
Buy rate	6%	6%
Sales	6	12
Money in	€6,000	€12,000

Same audience, same offer. Texts added, moved to 7pm. Double the money.

24 | Ten Mistakes That Kill Webinars, 1 To 5:

	MISTAKE	FIX
1	The title is about the creator	Name the result the viewer wants
2	One story the day before	Promote for a full week, push the last two days
3	Email only reminders	Add texts for the morning of and 15 minutes before
4	A time that suits the creator	Pick when the audience is free, usually evenings
5	Teaching everything	Three points, the what and the why

25 | Ten Mistakes That Kill Webinars, 6 To 10:

	MISTAKE	FIX
6	The pitch comes out of nowhere	Use the bridge: recap, show the gap, ask
7	A vague offer	Each part with what it does and an honest value
8	Fake scarcity	A real deadline, and stick to it
9	No follow up	Run the 7 day sequence and send the replay
10	Numbers aren't tracked	Fill in the five numbers after every webinar

26 | Launch Day Checklist:

- [ ] Every link tested on a phone
- [ ] Reminders on and tested
- [ ] Payment tested with a real purchase

SIGNS THEY'RE READY

- They post tutorials, so they already teach.
- Comments asking how to learn more.
- A course link in bio, or nothing at all.
- No webinars running yet.
- Real engagement, not a dead account.

WHERE TO LOOK

Search Instagram, TikTok and YouTube for the skill. Aim for roughly 10,000 to 200,000 followers.

BUILD A LIST OF 100

Name, platform, followers, what they teach, what they sell, and one thing you noticed.

30 | Messages That Get Replies:

COLD DM, TO A CREATOR

Hey Jake, loved the colour grading breakdown you posted on Tuesday. Loads of your comments ask if you teach this properly. I run live webinars for creators who teach a skill. I build everything, you just teach for an hour. Happy to show you what it could make for you. Reply yes and I'll send a couple of times.

WARM, TO PEOPLE YOU KNOW

Hey Ciara, quick one. I've started running webinars for creators who teach a skill, things like editing and fitness. If you know a creator who sells a course and wants more sales from their audience, I'd love an intro. I'll look after them.

20 a day is 100 a week. No replies after 100, rewrite the message.

31 | Your First Offer And The Call:

ILLUSTRATIVE

THE FIRST OFFER

"I'll build and run one webinar for you. You teach for an hour, I do everything else. €1,000 to set up and 20% of sales. If it doesn't make €5,000, I'll run the next one free."

WHAT TO SHOW ON THE CALL

1. Their numbers on the system diagram
2. The gap, worked out with them
3. What you'd change about how they sell now
4. A simple 30 day plan
5. Proof: your practice webinar or a result

32 | Pricing: Put A Number On The Gap:

ILLUSTRATIVE

2	›	€2,000	›	€12,000	›	€10,000
sales a month from his bio link		a month now		a month from one webinar		gap every month

€120,000

a year left on the table. Work it out with the creator using their own numbers, and write it where they can see it.

33 | Three Ways To Charge:

ILLUSTRATIVE

Jake's fixed webinar: €12,000 of sales a month, against €2,000 now.

PROJECT FEE

€3,000

Paid back by the first three sales on the night.

RETAINER

€1,500 a month

Run it every month and keep improving it.

5	Collab webinars	›	Two creators, two audiences, one webinar

36 | Scaling Your Own Business:

ILLUSTRATIVE

TEMPLATES

Save every page, email, text and script. Client two takes half the time.

STACK SHARE DEALS

Each creator on a share is monthly income.

GET HELP

At three clients, pay someone for the tech setup.

CASE STUDIES

Write up every good result with the numbers.

REFERRALS

Creators know creators. Ask every happy client.

ONE SKILL AREA

Get known as the person for editing creators, say.

3 creators × €2,400 = €7,200 a month. 5 creators = €12,000 a month.

37 | Your 30 Day Plan:

DAYS 1 TO 7

- Learn the numbers
- Run a practice webinar
- Watch 5 creators' webinars

DAYS 8 TO 14

- Pick a skill area
- List 100 creators
- Write 3 teardowns
